EXTRACT FROM GENERAL LAWS, CHAPTER 140

SECTION 57. No person, except one whose principal business is the manufacture and sale of new motor vehicles, but who incidentally acquires and sells second-hand vehicles, shall engage in the business of buying, selling, exchanging or assembling second-hand motor vehicles or parts thereof without securing a license as provided in section fifty-nine.

SECTION 58. Licenses granted under the following section shall be classified as follows :—

Class 1.—Any person who is the recognized agent of a motor vehicle manufacturer, or a seller of motor vehicles made by such manufacturer whose authority to sell the same is created by a written contract with such manufacturer or with some person authorized in writing by such manufacturer to enter into such contract, and whose principal business is the sale of new motor vehicles, the sale of second-hand motor vehicles being incidental thereto, may be granted an agent's or a seller's license.

Class 2.—Any person whose principal business is the buying and selling of second-hand vehicles may be granted a used car dealer's license.

Class 3.—Any person whose principal business is the buying of second-hand motor vehicles for the purpose of remodelling, taking apart or rebuilding the same, or the buying or selling of parts of second hand motor vehicles or tires, or the assembling of second-hand motor vehicle parts may be granted a motor vehicle junk license.

SECTION 59. The police commissioner in Boston and the licensing authorities in other cities and towns, may grant licenses under this section which shall expire on the first day of January following the date of issue unless sooner revoked. The fees for the licenses shall be fixed by the licensing board or officer, but in no case shall exceed fifty dollars. The license shall specify all the premises to be occupied by the licensee for the purpose of carrying on the licensed business. Permits for a change of situation of the licensed premises or for additions thereto may be granted at any time by the licensing board or officer in writing, a copy of which shall be attached to the license. All licenses granted under this section shall be revoked by the licensing board or officer if it appears, after hearing, that the licensee is not complying with sections fifty-seven to sixty-nine, inclusive, or the rules and regulations made thereunder; and no new license shall be granted to such person thereafter, nor to any person for use on the same premises, without the approval of the registrar of motor vehicles, in sections fifty-nine to sixty-six, inclusive, called the registrar. The hearing may be dispensed with if the registrar notifies the licensing board or officer that a licensee is not so complying.

THIS LICENSE EXPIRES JAN. 1, 1930.

This license is granted and accepted upon the express condition that the person or persons above licensed, shall, in all respects, fulfill, and conform to all the requirements of the laws relating to licensing of Common Victuallers and may be suspended or revoked for any violation of such.

EXTRACTS FROM GENERAL LAWS, CHAPTER 140

Section 8. A common victualler who, upon request, on any day but Sunday, refuses to supply food to a stranger or traveler shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

Section 9. If, in the opinion of the licensing authorities, a licensee as an innholder or a common victualler ceases to be engaged in the business he is licensed to pursue, or fails to maintain upon his premises the implements or facilities required by this chapter, they shall immediately revoke his license. If a licensee at any time conducts his licensed business in an improper manner, the licensing authorities, after notice to the licensee and reasonable opportunity for a hearing, may upon satisfactory proof thereof suspend or revoke his license. * * * A common victualler who violates section eight shall forfeit his license. A licensee who is convicted a second time of any of the provisions of sections six to eighteen, inclusive, shall forfeit his license.

Section 18. Every innholder and common victualler shall at all times have a board or sign affixed to his house, shop, cellar or store, or in a conspicuous place near the same, with his name legibly inscribed thereon, in large letters and the business for which he is licensed inscribed thereon, and upon neglect thereof shall forfeit twenty dollars.

Section 20. Whoever assumes to be an innholder or common victualler without being licensed as such under this chapter shall forfeit one hundred dollars.

Section 21. Whoever is convicted a third time of a violation of any provision of the preceding sections, except those contained in sections seven and eight, shall, in addition to the penalties before provided, be punished by imprisonment for not more than three months.

Agent's or Seller's License—Class I.

FOR THE SALE OF SECOND-HAND MOTOR VEHICLES

Chelmsford, MASSACHUSETTS DATE July 1 1929 19

In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 140 of the General Laws and amendments thereto

Milton G. Haire (Vinal Square Garage)

whose principal business is the sale of new motor vehicles as a recognized agent of the

Oakland and Pontiac Automobiles

is hereby licensed to sell, as incidental thereto, second-hand motor vehicles at No. Vinal Square St on premises described as follows:

In the one story cement block building at Vinal Square
North Chelmsford

EXTRACT FROM GENERAL LAWS, CHAPTER 140

SECTION 57. No person, except one whose principal business is the manufacture and sale of new motor vehicles, but who incidentally acquires and sells second-hand vehicles, shall engage in the business of buying, selling, exchanging or assembling second-hand motor vehicles or parts thereof without securing a license as provided in section fifty-nine.

SECTION 58. Licenses granted under the following section shall be classified as follows :—

Class 1.—Any person who is the recognized agent of a motor vehicle manufacturer, or a seller of motor vehicles made by such manufacturer whose authority to sell the same is created by a written contract with such manufacturer or with some person authorized in writing by such manufacturer to enter into such contract, and whose principal business is the sale of new motor vehicles, the sale of second-hand motor vehicles being incidental thereto, may be granted an agent's or a seller's license.

Class 2.—Any person whose principal business is the buying and selling of second-hand vehicles may be granted a used car dealer's license.

Class 3.—Any person whose principal business is the buying of second-hand motor vehicles for the purpose of remodelling, taking apart or rebuilding the same, or the buying or selling of parts of second hand motor vehicles or tires, or the assembling of second-hand motor vehicle parts may be granted a motor vehicle junk license.

SECTION 59. The police commissioner in Boston and the licensing authorities in other cities and towns, may grant licenses under this section which shall expire on the first day of January following the date of issue unless sooner revoked. The fees for the licenses shall be fixed by the licensing board or officer, but in no case shall exceed fifty dollars. The license shall specify all the premises to be occupied by the licensee for the purpose of carrying on the licensed business. Permits for a change of situation of the licensed premises or for additions thereto may be granted at any time by the licensing board or officer in writing, a copy of which shall be attached to the license. All licenses granted under this section shall be revoked by the licensing board or officer if it appears, after hearing, that the licensee is not complying with sections fifty-seven to sixty-nine, inclusive, or the rules and regulations made thereunder; and no new license shall be granted to such person thereafter, nor to any person for use on the same premises, without the approval of the registrar of motor vehicles, in sections fifty-nine to sixty-six, inclusive, called the registrar. The hearing may be dispensed with if the registrar notifies the licensing board or officer that a licensee is not so complying.

EXTRACTS FROM GENERAL LAWS, CHAPTER 140

Section 55. Whoever acts as a collector of, dealer in or keeper of a shop for the purpose, sale or barter of junk, old metals or second hand articles without a license, or in any other place or manner than that designated in his license or after notice to him that his license has been revoked, or violates any such rule, regulation or restriction, shall forfeit twenty dollars.

Section 56. A junk collector shall be deemed to be any person who by going from place to place collects by purchase or otherwise junk, old metals or second hand articles, whether or not by previous contract or arrangement.

Section 202. Licenses granted to keepers of intelligence offices, dealers in junk, old metals and second hand articles, junk collectors, pawn brokers and keepers of billiard saloons, pool or sippio rooms or tables, bowling alleys, skating rinks and picnic grounds shall, except as hereinafter provided, be signed by the clerk of the town where they are granted. Every such license shall, before being delivered to the licensee, be recorded by the town clerk, in a book kept for that purpose. Such license shall set forth the name of the licensee, the nature of the business, and the building or place in such town in which it is to be carried on, and shall continue in force until May first following unless sooner revoked. The board or officer issuing such a license shall, except as provided in section seventy-seven, receive for the use of the town such amount, not less than two dollars for each license, as the board or officer considers reasonable.* * * *

Section 203. Such licenses may be granted in April, to take effect on May first following.

Section 204. A license issued as aforesaid shall not protect the holder thereof in a building or place other than that designated in the license unless consent to removal is granted by the licensing board or officer.

Section 205. Upon the revocation of such a license, such clerk shall note the revocation upon the face of the record thereof, and shall give written notice to the licensee by delivering it to him in person or by leaving it at the place of business designated in the license.

This license is granted and accepted upon the express condition that the person or persons above licensed, shall, in all respects, fulfill, and conform to all the requirements of the laws relating to licensing of Common Victuallers and may be suspended or revoked for any violation of such.

EXTRACTS FROM GENERAL LAWS, CHAPTER 140

Section 8. A common victualler who, upon request, on any day but Sunday, refuses to supply food to a stranger or traveler shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

Section 9. If, in the opinion of the licensing authorities, a licensee as an innholder or a common victualler ceases to be engaged in the business he is licensed to pursue, or fails to maintain upon his premises the implements or facilities required by this chapter, they shall immediately revoke his license. If a licensee at any time conducts his licensed business in an improper manner, the licensing authorities, after notice to the licensee and reasonable opportunity for a hearing, may upon satisfactory proof thereof suspend or revoke his license. * * * A common victualler who violates section eight shall forfeit his license. A licensee who is convicted a second time of any of the provisions of sections six to eighteen, inclusive, shall forfeit his license.

Section 18. Every innholder and common victualler shall at all times have a board or sign affixed to his house, shop, cellar or store, or in a conspicuous place near the same, with his name legibly inscribed thereon, in large letters and the business for which he is licensed inscribed thereon, and upon neglect thereof shall forfeit twenty dollars.

Section 20. Whoever assumes to be an innholder or common victualler without being licensed as such under this chapter shall forfeit one hundred dollars.

Section 21. Whoever is convicted a third time of a violation of any provision of the preceding sections, except those contained in sections seven and eight, shall, in addition to the penalties before provided, be punished by imprisonment for not more than three months.

Section 8. A common victualler who, upon request, on any day but Sunday, refuses to supply food to a stranger or traveler shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

Section 9. If, in the opinion of the licensing authorities, a licensee as an innholder or a common victualler ceases to be engaged in the business he is licensed to pursue, or fails to maintain upon his premises the implements or facilities required by this chapter, they shall immediately revoke his license. If a licensee at any time conducts his licensed business in an improper manner, the licensing authorities, after notice to the licensee and reasonable opportunity for a hearing, may upon satisfactory proof thereof suspend or revoke his license. * * * A common victualler who violates section eight shall forfeit his license. A licensee who is convicted a second time of any of the provisions of sections six to eighteen, inclusive, shall forfeit his license.

Section 18. Every innholder and common victualler shall at all times have a board or sign affixed to his house, shop, cellar or store, or in a conspicuous place near the same, with his name legibly inscribed thereon, in large letters and the business for which he is licensed inscribed thereon, and upon neglect thereof shall forfeit twenty dollars.

Section 20. Whoever assumes to be an innholder or common victualler without being licensed as such under this chapter shall forfeit one hundred dollars.

Section 21. Whoever is convicted a third time of a violation of any provision of the preceding sections, except those contained in sections seven and eight, shall, in addition to the penalties before provided, be punished by imprisonment for not more than three months.

JUNK, OLD METALS AND SECOND HAND ARTICLES

in said town in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts relating thereto, the ordinances and by-laws of said town and such rules and regulations provided for the supervision thereof.

This license shall continue in force until May 1st, 1931, unless sooner revoked and is subject to sections two hundred and two to two hundred and five, inclusive, of the General Laws, Chapter 140.

By order of the Board of Selectmen this 1st day of May 1930.

Harold C. Petterson
Town Clerk

EXTRACTS FROM GENERAL LAWS, CHAPTER 140

Section 55. Whoever acts as a collector of, dealer in or keeper of a shop for the purpose, sale or barter of junk, old metals or second hand articles without a license, or in any other place or manner than that designated in his license or after notice to him that his license has been revoked, or violates any such rule, regulation or restriction, shall forfeit twenty dollars.

Section 56. A junk collector shall be deemed to be any person who by going from place to place collects by purchase or otherwise junk, old metals or second hand articles, whether or not by previous contract or arrangement.

Section 202. Licenses granted to keepers of intelligence offices, dealers in junk, old metals and second hand articles, junk collectors, pawn brokers and keepers of billiard saloons, pool or sippio rooms or tables, bowling alleys, skating rinks and picnic grounds shall, except as hereinafter provided, be signed by the clerk of the town where they are granted. Every such license shall, before being delivered to the licensee, be recorded by the town clerk, in a book kept for that purpose. Such license shall set forth the name of the licensee, the nature of the business, and the building or place in such town in which it is to be carried on, and shall continue in force until May first following unless sooner revoked. The board or officer issuing such a license shall, except as provided in section seventy-seven, receive for the use of the town such amount, not less than two dollars for each license, as the board or officer considers reasonable.* * * *

Section 203. Such licenses may be granted in April, to take effect on May first following.

Section 204. A license issued as aforesaid shall not protect the holder thereof in a building or place other than that designated in the license unless consent to removal is granted by the licensing board or officer.

Section 205. Upon the revocation of such a license, such clerk shall note the revocation upon the face of the record thereof, and shall give written notice to the licensee by delivering it to him in person or by leaving it at the place of business designated in the license.

to Chelmsford Ginger Ale doing business at Littleton st
to engage in the business of the manufacture or bottling of CARBONATED NON-ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES, SODA WATERS, MINERAL OR SPRING WATERS.

This Permit is granted and accepted upon the express conditions that the person or persons to whom it is issued shall, in all respects, fulfill, and conform to, all requirements of the law relating thereto and the rules and regulations made thereunder and may be revoked, if, after the examination, by the board of health, the premises or the equipment used therein in connection with the business, is found to be in an unsanitary condition.

This Permit expires Apr 12 1932 unless sooner revoked.

GENERAL LAWS, CHAPTER 94

Section 10A.—Boards of health of cities and towns may annually grant permits to engage in the business of the manufacture or bottling of carbonated non-alcoholic beverages, soda waters, mineral or spring waters and may fix fees for said permits not to exceed ten dollars. The provisions of this section and the following four sections shall not apply to persons registered under sections thirty-seven to forty, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and twelve.

Section 10B.—The board of health shall, from time to time, examine the premises of any person granted a permit under the preceding section, and if such premises or the equipment used therein in connection with the business of such person is found to be in an unsanitary condition, the board may revoke such permit after a hearing, ten days' notice of which shall be given such person.

Section 10C.—All materials used in the manufacture of beverages specified in section 10A shall be stored, handled, transported and kept in such a manner as to protect them from spoilage, contamination and unwholesomeness. No ingredient or material, including water, shall be used in the manufacture or bottling of any such beverage which is spoiled or contaminated, or which may render the product unwholesome, unfit for food, or injurious to health. Persons granted permits under Section 10A, shall comply with sections one hundred and eighty-six to one hundred and ninety-six inclusive.

Section 10D.—The department of public health and local boards of health may make rules and regulations to carry out the three preceding sections.

Section 10E.—Any person who engages in the business of the manufacture or bottling of carbonated non-alcoholic beverages, soda waters, mineral or spring waters without the permit provided for in Section 10A or who violates any provision of Sections 10A to 10D, inclusive, or of any rule or regulation made thereunder, shall be punished for a first offence by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars and for a subsequent offence by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

If, in the opinion of the licensing authorities, a licensee as an innholder or a common victualler ceases to be engaged in the business he is licensed to pursue, or fails to maintain upon his premises the implements or facilities required by this chapter, they shall immediately revoke his license. If a licensee at any time conducts his licensed business in an improper manner, the licensing authorities, after notice to the licensee and reasonable opportunity for a hearing, may upon satisfactory proof thereof suspend or revoke his license. * * * A common victualler who violates section eight shall forfeit his license. A licensee who is convicted a second time of any of the provisions of sections six to eighteen, inclusive, shall forfeit his license.

Section 18. Every innholder and common victualler shall at all times have a board or sign affixed to his house, shop, cellar or store, or in a conspicuous place near the same, with his name legibly inscribed thereon, in large letters and the business for which he is licensed inscribed thereon, and upon neglect thereof shall forfeit twenty dollars.

Section 20. Whoever assumes to be an innholder or common victualler without being licensed as such under this chapter shall forfeit one hundred dollars.

Section 21. Whoever is convicted a third time of a violation of any provision of the preceding sections, except those contained in sections seven and eight, shall, in addition to the penalties before provided, be punished by imprisonment for not more than three months.

EXTRACTS FROM GENERAL LAWS, CHAPTER 140

Section 55. Whoever acts as a collector of, dealer in or keeper of a shop for the purpose, sale or barter of junk, old metals or second hand articles without a license, or in any other place or manner than that designated in his license or after notice to him that his license has been revoked, or violates any such rule, regulation or restriction, shall forfeit twenty dollars.

Section 56. A junk collector shall be deemed to be any person who by going from place to place collects by purchase or otherwise junk, old metals or second hand articles, whether or not by previous contract or arrangement.

Section 202. Licenses granted to keepers of intelligence offices, dealers in junk, old metals and second hand articles, junk collectors, pawn brokers and keepers of billiard saloons, pool or sippio rooms or tables, bowling alleys, skating rinks and picnic grounds shall, except as hereinafter provided, be signed by the clerk of the town where they are granted. Every such license shall, before being delivered to the licensee, be recorded by the town clerk, in a book kept for that purpose. Such license shall set forth the name of the licensee, the nature of the business, and the building or place in such town in which it is to be carried on, and shall continue in force until May first following unless sooner revoked. The board or officer issuing such a license shall, except as provided in section seventy-seven, receive for the use of the town such amount, not less than two dollars for each license, as the board or officer considers reasonable. * * *

Section 203. Such licenses may be granted in April, to take effect on May first following.

Section 204. A license issued as aforesaid shall not protect the holder thereof in a building or place other than that designated in the license unless consent to removal is granted by the licensing board or officer.

Section 205. Upon the revocation of such a license, such clerk shall note the revocation upon the face of the record thereof, and shall give written notice to the licensee by delivering it to him in person or by leaving it at the place of business designated in the license.

This is to Certify that the BOARD OF HEALTH of the Town of Chelmsford have granted a LICENSE to Standard Oil Co doing business at Princeton St, North Chelmsford for the manufacturing, buying, selling or dealing in METHYL ALCOHOL, WOOD ALCOHOL, so called, DENATURED ALCOHOL or any preparation used for manufacturing or commercial purposes which contains more than three per cent. of any of the said alcohols and is intended for use other than as a beverage, and shall expire April 30th, 1931.

This License is granted and accepted upon the express conditions that the person or persons above licensed shall, in all respects, fulfill, and conform to, all requirements of the law relating thereto and that in case of any breach of said requirements this license may become suspended or revoked.

GENERAL LAWS — CHAPTER 138

SECTION 34. No person, other than a registered druggist shall engage in the business of manufacturing, buying, selling or dealing in methyl alcohol, or wood alcohol, so-called, or denatured alcohol, or any preparation used for manufacturing or commercial purposes which contains more than three per cent of any of the said alcohols and is intended for use other than as a beverage, without being licensed so to do by the board of health of the city or town where the business is conducted.

SECTION 35. The board of health of each city or town may issue licenses under the preceding section upon the payment of a fee of one dollar, to such persons as it shall find to be properly qualified to carry on the said business. The licenses shall expire on April thirtieth of each year, and may at any time be suspended or revoked, for cause by the board. The board shall keep a record of all such licenses.

SECTION 36. Every barrel or keg containing methyl alcohol or wood alcohol, so called, or denatured alcohol containing methyl alcohol, or any drug or medicine intended for external use containing methyl alcohol, shall bear in capital letters not less than three-fourths nor more than one and one-half inches in height, stencilled thereon or printed upon a label affixed thereto, the words "POISON, NOT FOR INTERNAL USE". Every other container of such alcohol, drug or medicine shall bear a label of white paper on which shall be printed in red capital letters not less than one-fourth of an inch in height, the words "DEADLY POISON," the name and place of business of the vendor, and the statement that he is a registered druggist or the number of his license, under the two preceding sections, and, in legible type, the words "NOT FOR INTERNAL USE, CAUSES BLINDNESS. KEEP FROM THE EYES." Whoever, himself or by his servant or agent, sells, exchanges, or delivers any such alcohol, drug or medicine in any container not conforming with this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars.

SECTION 37. The sale of methyl alcohol, wood alcohol, so called, denatured alcohol, or any preparation containing alcohol as described in section thirty-four by a person not licensed as required by sections thirty-four and thirty-five or to any person without reasonable investigation and inquiry by the licensee that the same is not to be used for drinking purposes, shall constitute the offense of unlawful sale of alcohol and may be described as such in any complaint or indictment without more; but a person so charged shall be entitled to a bill of particulars in accordance with section forty of chapter two hundred and seventy-seven.

SECTION 38. Except as otherwise provided in section thirty-six, violation of any provision of section thirty-four to thirty-seven, inclusive, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the house of correction for a term of not exceeding six months, or both.

This is to Certify that the BOARD OF HEALTH of the Town of Chelmsford have granted a LICENSE to R. P. Kidder doing business at Central Square Chelmsford Mass for the manufacturing, buying, selling or dealing in METHYL ALCOHOL, WOOD ALCOHOL, so called, DENATURED ALCOHOL or any preparation used for manufacturing or commercial purposes which contains more than three per cent. of any of the said alcohols and is intended for use other than as a beverage, and shall expire April 30th, 1931.

This License is granted and accepted upon the express conditions that the person or persons above licensed shall, in all respects, fulfill, and conform to, all requirements of the law relating thereto and that in case of any breach of said requirements this license may become suspended or revoked.

GENERAL LAWS — CHAPTER 138

SECTION 34. No person, other than a registered druggist shall engage in the business of manufacturing, buying, selling or dealing in methyl alcohol, or wood alcohol, so-called, or denatured alcohol, or any preparation used for manufacturing or commercial purposes which contains more than three per cent of any of the said alcohols and is intended for use other than as a beverage, without being licensed so to do by the board of health of the city or town where the business is conducted.

SECTION 35. The board of health of each city or town may issue licenses under the preceding section upon the payment of a fee of one dollar, to such persons as it shall find to be properly qualified to carry on the said business. The licenses shall expire on April thirtieth of each year, and may at any time be suspended or revoked, for cause by the board. The board shall keep a record of all such licenses.

SECTION 36. Every barrel or keg containing methyl alcohol or wood alcohol, so called, or denatured alcohol containing methyl alcohol, or any drug or medicine intended for external use containing methyl alcohol, shall bear in capital letters not less than three-fourths nor more than one and one-half inches in height, stencilled thereon or printed upon a label affixed thereto, the words "POISON, NOT FOR INTERNAL USE". Every other container of such alcohol, drug or medicine shall bear a label of white paper on which shall be printed in red capital letters not less than one-fourth of an inch in height, the words "DEADLY POISON," the name and place of business of the vendor, and the statement that he is a registered druggist or the number of his license, under the two preceding sections, and, in legible type, the words "NOT FOR INTERNAL USE, CAUSES BLINDNESS. KEEP FROM THE EYES." Whoever, himself or by his servant or agent, sells, exchanges, or delivers any such alcohol, drug or medicine in any container not conforming with this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars.

SECTION 37. The sale of methyl alcohol, wood alcohol, so called, denatured alcohol, or any preparation containing alcohol as described in section thirty-four by a person not licensed as required by sections thirty-four and thirty-five or to any person without reasonable investigation and inquiry by the licensee that the same is not to be used for drinking purposes, shall constitute the offense of unlawful sale of alcohol and may be described as such in any complaint or indictment without more; but a person so charged shall be entitled to a bill of particulars in accordance with section forty of chapter two hundred and seventy-seven.

SECTION 38. Except as otherwise provided in section thirty-six, violation of any provision of section thirty-four to thirty-seven, inclusive, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the house of correction for a term of not exceeding six months, or both.

Section 56. A junk collector shall be deemed to be any person who by going from place to place collects by purchase or otherwise junk, old metals or second hand articles, whether or not by previous contract or arrangement.

Section 202. Licenses granted to keepers of intelligence offices, dealers in junk, old metals and second hand articles, junk collectors, pawn brokers and keepers of billiard saloons, pool or sippio rooms or tables, bowling alleys, skating rinks and picnic grounds shall, except as hereinafter provided, be signed by the clerk of the town where they are granted. Every such license shall, before being delivered to the licensee, be recorded by the town clerk, in a book kept for that purpose. Such license shall set forth the name of the licensee, the nature of the business, and the building or place in such town in which it is to be carried on, and shall continue in force until May first following unless sooner revoked. The board or officer issuing such a license shall, except as provided in section seventy-seven, receive for the use of the town such amount, not less than two dollars for each license, as the board or officer considers reasonable. * * *

Section 203. Such licenses may be granted in April, to take effect on May first following.

Section 204. A license issued as aforesaid shall not protect the holder thereof in a building or place other than that designated in the license unless consent to removal is granted by the licensing board or officer.

Section 205. Upon the revocation of such a license, such clerk shall note the revocation upon the face of the record thereof, and shall give written notice to the licensee by delivering it to him in person or by leaving it at the place of business designated in the license.
